Approved For Release 1999/09/08; CIA RDP75

CPYRGHT

JUNE 18, 1965

CIA's Man In Portland Keeps Mum On Mission

responsibility By TED NATT track of foreign nationals coming through Portland.

various countries to clean the that go into an overall intelli-gence "picture." Obviously,

among the CIA's prime interests are the Communist-bloc

Behind an unmarked door of the fourth floor of the U.S. Another task he is thought Courthouse sits an affable to have assigned to him is the fourth floor of the U.S. man with a quick smile. He is talking with immigrants from a former FBI agent.

He introduces himself as bits and pieces of information that go into an overall intelli-

He is in charge of Port-

He is in charge of Political Intelligence Agency office.

What he does or why he's there are questions he can't answer. "I'm sorry," he says that the CIA has had an office among the CIA's prime intergence that the Communist floor nations and immigrants from these areas recieve more attention than those from less sensitive areas. ong the CIA has had an office Portland (It's been here for veral years). CIA regulaons prohibit giving out any formation.

While Bailey says the CIA doesn't try to hide the fact that it has an office here, it doesn't advertise it either CIA is not listed in the Port that telephone heel more than land telephone book nor the agencies tele overnment hone book nor is there any otation anywhere that it has n office in the courthouse. rivate Number

The office does have a tele hone, but the number is list d under a private name.

What an external securit organizaton (the FBI harged with internal secury) is doing in Portland i among the questions Baile smiles at and says, "Sorry" in

While the CIA is an externa security organization and prohibited by law from engage ng in internal security fun tions, the agency is also proh bited by law from disclosing publicly what its functions

It is thought that Bailey partner is more of a personne man than a CIA operative One reliable source said the man's prime responsibility s recruiting persons to work for

What Bailey does is another matter.

Duty Suggested

One source sald part of his

FOIAb3b

CPYRGHT